Now that you've been painting for a while, its starting to look all the same. Bring in three (3) of your paintings and let's help provide direction and guidance with the critique to ensure that you stay on task and address the purpose and objectives of the your painting.

FEE: $40 per person

Note from School Director: Ellen White is "dead-on" with her critiques. She has a discerning eye and can help you gain a better understanding about the work you have created, where it is, where it may need to go and she can help with suggestions for improving the work, if needed. I have personally hired her to critique my work and every time, she guides me in producing a better work!!!
